OVERVIEW

This tailored itinerary blends leisurely walking with comfortable hotel stays. Rather than full trekking and wild camping, it's built for visitors who enjoy walking without doing it all day every day — reaching remote monasteries and villages accessible only on foot, along routes once used by pilgrims and traders.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Hiking in Phobjikha Valley, home to black-necked cranes (November–March)
- Trek to Taktshang Monastery, perched on a 900-meter cliff
- Walk to 18th-century Lungchotse Lhakhang with Himalayan views
- Village visits and farm experiences
- Cooking lessons and Buddhist meditation sessions

PLACES COVERED
